Advice to Mothers.—Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best-known remedy for diarrhea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. MWF1y

DOMESTIC AFFAIRS.

NOTHING AS YET HEARD FROM THE DANMARK.

El Paso, Texas, Has a Mayor Who Can Stand Off an Army of Politicians—Fruit Prospects.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

"LET THE SOUTH ALONE."

Interviews With Southern Men Upon the Needs of the South.

PHILADELPHIA, April 18th.—The Enquirer will publish to-morrow interviews which it has collected with prominent politicians of the Southern States, in answer to the questions, "What is the Southern question?" "And how should it be met, to produce the greatest good to the South?"

The responses from nearly all voiced the same sentiment; that the race problem is the great one to be solved, and that the South should be allowed to manage her own affairs without interference.

Among the most prominent gentlemen from whom replies were received, are the following: Governor Richardson, of South Carolina; Governor Lee, of Virginia; Governor Buckner, of Kentucky; Attorney-General Miller, of Mississippi, and Lieutenant-Governor Mauldin, of South Carolina.

The tenor of their replies is contained mainly in that of Governor Richardson's, who says the Southern question is the race question, "Shall the African or the Caucasian race predominate? There should be a strict avoidance by the General Government of any distinctively Southern policy, leaving to the States themselves the management of their own domestic affairs.

Governor Buckner of Kentucky protested that there is no Southern question. Such unpatriotic sectional agitation, whether originating in the North or South, should not be encouraged, and injury resulting from such agitation would be reduced to the minimum if the people of each State would continue to attend to their own affairs and unite in supporting the general Government in its just exercise of all legitimate powers.

Attorney-General Miller of Mississippi said the contrast between the negro and white Governments had been so decidedly in favor of the latter that the white people were determined that there shall be no return to the former. A military despotism would be preferred. When interstates judgment, instead of passion and prejudice, shall control the Southern negro then the question will be solved.

Lieutenant-Governor Maulnin of South Carolina says the Federal Government can help the South by appointing to office men of character and capacity and by dealing generously in the matter of international improvement, and by refunding the cotton tax. In other words, says he, let the South alone.

THE FRUIT PROSPECTS.

Reports are Excellent From All Sections of the Union.

ST. LOUIS, April 18th.—The Republic will print to-morrow a report giving the fruit and vegetable prospect of the whole country. The reports have all been written during the present month by the best informed parties in their respective States.

The peach crop is expected to be the largest ever grown, the peach buds being alive at this time in every State in the Union, and the season being now so far advanced the crop is assured in the West and South, and although too early to safely predict a full yield in the East, yet a good crop is expected.

The crop of apples will be much smaller than that of last year, it being an off year for that crop at many of the big shipping points.

The strawberry crop is nearly up to the average, yet much larger than that of 1888, which was the lightest in many years.

The pear crop will average light throughout. Its great enemy is the blight.

The grape crop in the West and South has been favored with such a mild winter that but little injury has been inflicted, and nearly a double yield of that of last year is looked for.

The general vegetable crop, which is attracting more attention from labor and investors generally, especially through the Southern States, is reported excellent.

Florida is now the most formidable rival of all other Southern States as a shipper of early fruits and vegetables, getting into every market, East and West, before any other State by several weeks. Her orange crop promises to be larger than that of last year, the heaviest on record.

California, it seems, is drying and evaporating her fruits to a greater extent since the interstate commerce law raised rates to distant markets, yet the almost unprecedented low prices prevailing for dried and evaporated fruit now and for months past, will discourage operators and reduce the amount of fruit so saved largely in all the States.

A LUCKY HEIRESS.

An Unsophisticated Mountain Girl Wins Wealth.

NEW BEDFORD (Mass.), April 18th.—An anonymous writer in San Francisco has been the means of transforming an ignorant mountain girl into a wealthy heiress. During the war there came to Nantucket a young dentist named Franklin A. Ellis. He had plenty of money, which he increased by securing a large practice. There were mysterious rumors about him, but he kept his past to himself and nothing could be discovered of his earlier days. In 1884 he died, leaving personal property and real estate amounting to $100,000. These went to some Massachusetts relatives. The Court appointed Allen Coffin administrator and the estate was amicably divided. About a year since Mr. Coffin was surprised to receive several letters from San Francisco, signed "Cleveland," saying Ellis had a daughter living, and telling him to inquire in Gainsville, Ga. All efforts to discover Cleveland's identity failed.

Mr. Coffin started out to investigate, and at Gainesville found that Ellis had, in 1880, married a Martha Palty, and had prevailed on her mother to sell her estate and go North with him. He was traced to Illinois, where it was ascertained that after some time Ellis had robbed the mother-in-law of all her money and fled. The old lady died and his wife, after giving birth to a daughter, wedded a widower named Ramsey. She soon died and Ramsey took the child to his home in Tennessee, where he died soon after. The child was taken care of by a relative of Ramsey's first wife and taken to the mountains of East Tennessee, were she was raised in ignorance and toil. Coffin discovered her, brought her East and sent her to school, although she is now 22. He began suit for the divided estates and yesterday the case was decided in his favor. The case attracted much attention. All wonder now who the mysterious "Cleveland" is.

KING McPHERSON.

A Suit of Clothes, an American Flag and a Cheek of Brass.

CHICAGO, April 19th.—A Daily News Washington special has a very pretty little story which promises to develop into an interesting trial. It comes to Washington from Alaska. It is to the effect that about three years ago a man named McPherson sailed from San Francisco and eventually landed on one of the Aleutian Islands off the coast of Alaska. Mr. McPherson's entire outfit consisted of a suit of clothes, an American flag and cheek enough for a regiment, together with a paper purporting to have been signed by Attorney-General Garland, appointing him United States Commissioner. As soon as he landed on the island he raised the American flag with a great deal of ceremony, took command of 600 natives and compelled them to address him as King McPherson. Each season he exacted a heavy tribute from the natives, and altogether he seems to have been having a lovely time.

Things went along very smoothly until a few months ago, when report says he had some difficulty with three of his subjects, and, fearing there might be mutiny, he hanged three of the rebellious ones. The report of McPherson rule reached the Treasury Department and a special agent was sent to his island to investigate the matter. This agent recently reported the facts to Secretary Windom substantially as they are given above. Now it is said the revenue cutter will be sent to the island for the purpose of arresting McPherson. It is the intention of the authorities to bring him to San Francisco and try him for murder.

BRUTALITY TO SEAMEN.

The Captain and Mates of the Solitaire Murder a Sailor.

PHILADELPHIA, April 18th.—United States Deputy Marshals have been hunting since Monday night for Captain Stonewall, first mate Ryan and second mate Robins of the Solitaire, which arrived from Dunkirk Monday after a sixty-four days' voyage. The officers are armed with warrants for the arrest of the three men, charging them with cruelty, such as has seldom been reported on shipboard in recent years. The story as told by the sailors to the United States Commissioner includes the murder of one of the seamen, who was knocked from the fore upper sailyard by the second mate to the deck, killing him instantly. The injuries of the others was by frightful beatings, continued brutality and overwork during the whole voyage. On the way up the river the Captain sent the first and second mates ashore near League Island, not daring to bring them to the city for fear of arrest. He brought the vessel to the city himself and then disappeared.

A SHREWD MAYOR.

He Takes Matters in His Own Hands When Necessary.

EL PASO (Tex.), April 18th.—A peaceable and eminently successful revolution was accomplished in the municipal affairs of El Paso this afternoon. A new charter was lately granted by the Legislature. At the first election under it the Republican ticket was elected. The former City Council was Democratic, and refused to open and promulgate the returns of the election. This would keep in the old Aldermen, the majority being Democrats. This afternoon Mayor Lightbody, a Republican, opened and read the returns in spite of the Aldermen and declared the new ticket elected. The new Mayor, Krakaus, was at once sworn in, with the new Aldermen, and appointed I. Fisher Satterthwaite City Marshal, and enough deputies were sworn in to keep the peace. Of course great dissatisfaction existed among the Democrats, and there was much talk of forcible resistance, but up to a late hour the peace had not been broken.

THE ACT OF A HERO.

A Switchman Dies to Save the Life of a Little Child.

NEW YORK, April 18th.—A hero, clad in brown, greasy overalls, checked jumper and the cap of a switchman, lost his life yesterday in the yard of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Jersey City while saving from the frightful death that he himself met a ten-year-old child. He was Patrick McAtamny, an Irishman, 42 years old, who supported his wife and family of seven young children by switching trains for the Pennsylvania Railroad. He was standing in the door of his little house about 3 o'clock waiting for a single car to be backed by an engine on a side track. Just as the car which he had switched reached him, a little boy who had been picking up coal from an ash heap near by stepped on the track immediately in front of the car. McAtamny saw him and jumping to the track pushed the boy violently from it. The next instant, however, the rapidly moving car struck the man. There was a crunching of bones, and when the engine had pushed the car on a mass of bloody shreds was all that remained of the switchman.

POISONED HER PARENTS.

A Michigan Chippy Who Wanted to Join the Cowboys.

MARINE CITY (Mich.), April 18th.—On Monday evening last James Williams and his wife were taken suddenly ill with symptoms of poisoning. They are still in a serious condition.

This morning Matilda Williams, the 14-year-old daughter of Mrs. Williams by a former husband, admitted to the physician in charge that she had put a tablespoonful of "Rough on Rats" in the tea of each.

The girl had cast her fortunes with a cowboy combination and was brought home against her will. She saw no way to continue on the high road to fame that she had selected other than by removing her parents, and she acted accordingly.

Did Not Want His Nose Pulled.

WASHINGTON, April 18th.—In the Armes Court-martial case to-day, Governor Beaver testified that personally he had nothing to do with Armes' removal from the parade on Inauguration Day. Some one had suggested that General Armes be appointed on the staff, and not remembering at the time in the hurry that General Armes was dead, he (Beaver) had said appoint him. When the mistake was discovered he had told Armes how it occurred and dropped his name from the list. In a letter from Armes to witness, dated April 2d, Armes requested the Governor to stop the Court-martial proceedings, as they would result in his dismissal, and he preferred death to the loss of his commission. He added that the Governor stood in danger of becoming his murderer. In another letter, dated day before yesterday, he apologized for the Riggs' House episode. The witness told of this episode, saying that he had laughingly replied to Armes that he could not apologize for his removal, and that he had then felt Armes' hand brush his face in a rude way. He had in a moment struck with his crutch at Armes. Armes' action was something in the nature both of assault and an insult. Witness took it to be an attempt to get hold of his nose and was pretty indignant.

Election Officers on Trial.

LITTLE ROCK (Ark.), April 18th.—The trial of William Palmer, Thomas Hervey and William Hobbs, the Judges of Election charged with interfering with the Congressional election at Plummerville last November, began in the United States Circuit Court here to-day. The theft of the ballot-box by masked men before the votes were counted and the assassination of John M. Clayton are the principal features in the case.

Mrs. Fields Shoots Her Husband.

BUTLER (Pa.), April 18th.—J. E. Fields was shot yesterday morning by his wife and died after a most sensational scene. Fields became enraged because his wife insisted on reading instead of retiring at midnight, and beat her face to a jelly. At 4 o'clock he again arose and attempted to beat her, when she took a revolver from the cabinet and cried, "Strike and I'll shoot." He struck and she fired.

She turned to her little daughter and said, "I've shot your father in self-defense. Shall I kill myself?"

The dying husband called out, "No; you served me right. You fired in self-defense."

He made a deposition to this effect and died two hours later.

A Compromise Candidate.

WASHINGTON, April 18th.—The selection of Marville W. Cooper for United States Appraiser at New York, is a compromise. Platt's choice for the appointment was McLean, a lawyer and a politician, but there was strong opposition to his appointment, and the President announced that he must have a business man, not a lawyer for Appraiser. Mr. Platt and both of the New York Senators got together and agreed upon Cooper. Secretary Tichenor directly under whom the Appraiser's appointment comes, wanted Assistant Appraiser Stevens promoted, and has held to that recommendation to the last.

A Large Oil Purchase.

PITTSBURG, April 18th.—A Lima (O.) special says: The remaining stockholders of the Ohio Oil Company, who did not sell out yesterday to the Standard Company, were to-day notified that if they wished to sell they could obtain seventy dollars per one hundred for their stock. Certified checks to the amount of $785,000 passed through one of the banks here to-day in payment for the property. This not only gives the Standard Company control, but makes them the owners of the territory. The Union Oil Company sold their territory to the Standard Company to-day. The price paid was $27,000.

A Wealthy Beggar.

NEW ORLEANS, April 18th.—Felix Viart, aged 72, a professional beggar, died a few days ago of debility and neglect, in an old shanty in the rear of the town. She had lived there for over twenty years in the most abject poverty, supporting herself by begging, which she followed as a profession. The Coroner discovered, hidden around her shanty, $38,500, of which $2,500 was in gold, secreted in an old flower-pot in the yard, and $36,000 in good bonds, stocks and securities concealed in the wall. The woman was believed to be in destitute circumstances. She came here from France, and her only relative and heir lives in Paris.

All Hope Fast Fading.

NEW YORK, April 18th.—Faint hopes of the passengers and crew of the lost Danmark being brought into this port are fast fading. The Italy, from Liverpool April 6th, arrived at 10:30 to-night. The Helvetia, from Liverpool April 2d, on which great hopes were centered, arrived an hour later. The Thingvalla, of the same line as the lost steamer, from Christiansan April 6th, came at 12 o'clock. None brought news of the lost vessel. The Strathleven from Gibraltar, and Tuormina from Hamburg, are yet to come.

A Lucky Convict.

DENVER, April 18th.—John A. Pierce, several years ago, came to Colorado from Circleville, O., after leading a wayward life. This was continued in this State until one day he was found in a gang of horse-thieves. Although he asserted his innocence, he was sentenced to a term of years in the State Prison.

Last night word was received that his father had died, leaving $100,000 to him. Efforts will be made to secure the young man's pardon.

Foreign Cars.

WASHINGTON, April 18th.—It is said to-day that Assistant Secretary Tichenor will soon take up and decide the question as to whether or not Canadian railroads shall pay duty on cars run into this country. This question originated with Assistant Secretary Maynard, who placed Inspectors at Portland, Port Huron and other points along the frontier to ascertain how many foreign cars came into the United States, but it was never decided, the point not being at issue.

Nothing Heard From the Danmark.

NEW YORK, April 18th.—The steamer Olympia, from the Mediterranean, reports having spoken four vessels, but did not hear anything about the abandoned Danmark.

LONDON, April 18th.—The National Line steamer, the Queen, from New York, which it was thought might bring news of the passengers of the steamer Danmark, has arrived at Queenstown. She reports that she saw nothing of the steamer Danmark or her passengers.

They Ought to Exclude it.

WASHINGTON, April 18th.—The United States Consul at Havre informs the State Department that from and after May 1st next a duty of sixty cents per 100 pounds will be levied on all importations into France of lard mixed with cotton seed oil, irrespective of the percentage of such mixture, and that all lard imported from the United States will be subjected to a Governmental examination.

A Light Sentence.

WASHINGTON, April 18th.—The general Court-martial in the case of Lieutenant-Commander Book, charged with leaving his command without authority, has been dissolved. It is understood at the Navy Department, that while Commander Book has been found technically guilty, his sentence will be very light, consisting probably of temporary suspension from duty.

Crushed to Death in a Mine.

READING (Pa.), April 18th.—At Farmington to-day the shaft of the ore mine which is 125 feet deep caved in. Eighteen men were in the mine, and a dozen of them were partially covered with the falling mass. All succeeded in crawling out, without sustaining any serious injury, except one, who was crushed to death.

Gone Into the Hands of a Receiver.

ANOKA (Minn.), April 18th.—It has been decided that the First National Bank of this city, which was recently cleaned out by Cashier Pratt, shall go into the hands of a receiver. Mrs. Nell, the lady who was on the absconded Cashier's paper to the extent of about $40,000, refuses to pay the notes, and a long law suit is in prospect.

A Huge Debt.

ST. LOUIS, April 18th.—The St. Louis Elevator Company gave a deed of trust to-day upon its property to William E. Blurr, for Walter Johnson, to secure payment of five notes aggregating $5,999,994. This is a complication growing out of the Jackson suicide. The deed was made to secure outsiders against loss by the wheat deal.

Diamond Contests.

CHICAGO, April 18th.—The scores for games played to-day are as follows:
CINCINNATI.—Cincinnati 4, St. Louis 12.
BALTIMORE.—Columbus 13, Baltimore 3.
PHILADELPHIA.—Athletics 3, Brooklyn 2.
LOUISVILLE.—Louisville 6, Kansas City 8.

A Good Subject for Judge Lynch.

RICHMOND (Mo.), April 18th.—Mrs. F. Conyers, residing fifteen miles from here, was yesterday assaulted and outraged by an unknown man. She was the victim of a similar assault ten days ago. Armed men are searching for the assailant.

Get a Rope That "Fits" His Neck.

JACKSONVILLE (Fla.), April 18th.—Last night Isaac Jones, a negro, broke every bone in the body of his four-year-old child with an iron bar, and then fatally beat his wife. Jones says he has fits, and that he had one last night.

Osborne Still in the Lead.

WASHINGTON, April 18th.—Parties who are watching the Public Printer fight, are of the opinion that it will be settled in a day or two. Indications still point to Osborne of California for the position.

A Nice Little Tea Party.

WASHINGTON, April 18th.—Whitelaw Reid and D. O. Mills, of New York, were entertained at dinner this evening by President and Mrs. Harrison.

WIRED WORDS IN BRIEF.

Crushed sugar advanced a shilling on the London market yesterday.

Grover Cleveland has declined to be a Commissioner of the new High Bridge Park.

Proceedings in insolvency were begun yesterday in Pasadena in the case of E. C. Webster, a millionaire real estate dealer.

J. Munday, an Italian employed on the new suspension bridge at Niagara, fell to the river below and was drowned yesterday.

A man by the name of Sydney Walters, an ex-newspaper correspondent, committed suicide by taking morphine yesterday in Chicago.

At the Alabama midland crossing of the Chattahoochee river yesterday, two boats containing eight men each capsized, drowning five of them.

The police searched the residence of Deputy Turquet and five other members of the Boulangist party for documents in relation to the Boulangist campaign.

The hearing of the petition of the American Bell Telephone Company for an increase of $10,000,000 in its capital stock was begun in St. Louis yesterday.

It is now said another broad-gauge railroad is talked of between Santa Cruz and San Francisco that will reduce the time between the two places to two hours.

A bagnio at Santa Rosa was burned at an early hour yesterday morning. The inmates barely escaped with their lives, and a prominent citizen lost his coat and vest.

The old Carroll homestead at Knoxville was burned Tuesday. The tract upon which the old mansion stood was taken up in 1727 by the father of Charles Carroll of Carrollton, and embraced 15,000 acres.

Two men, Riley and Brown, taking down telegraph wires in New York City yesterday morning, were jerked out of a window, being entangled in a rope attached to a falling pole. Both men were instantly killed.

The Great American Tea Company, of Nebraska City, is in the hands of a Sheriff. The manager has disappeared, and an investigation shows that the entire stock is nothing but sawdust and will invoice about $25. The liabilities are unknown.

For two years, it is rumored, the Standard Oil Company has been quietly securing property in Ohio, where it has invested $7,000,000. It is said they will now abandon the Pennsylvania fields for those in the Buckeye State.

John H. Swift was hanged at Hartford yesterday for the murder of his wife in July, 1887. She was forced to leave him on account of his dissipated habits and cruelty. The murder was done because she refuse to return to him.

Mrs. Amanda Wallitgan, of Jackson, Miss., was found bound and gagged on the railroad track yesterday morning. She claimed to have been robbed at the point of a revolver by an unknown highwayman and placed on the track in the condition found.

An attempt was made Wednesday night to wreck the west-bound passenger train on the Chicago and West Michigan Railroad near Grand Rapids. While approaching Grandville an open switch was encountered and the engine and all the cars ran off the track, the engine being completely demolished.

Joseph King, a wealthy and well-known citizen of Springfield, Mass., 73 years of age, was shot and killed by Edgar King, his oldest son, and the house fired. The murderer went twenty steps from the house and then shot himself. The murder and suicide are traceable to an unbalanced mind caused by dissipation.

The trial of Mrs. Frances Carmichael charged with the murder of her husband, at Hillsdale, Mich., ended with a verdict of not guilty. Carmichael died on January 15th, and on his deathbed declared that his wife had poisoned him. It was shown that he had threatened to commit suicide, and the jury did not credit his dying statement.

By a jury's verdict yesterday, Frances Ebbs, the colored mistress of James M. Roman, an old farmer recently deceased, was given all his property, in amount $20,000. Roman had lived with the woman from slavery days, when he owned her. At his death he left her and her three children his property. His niece, Mrs. Mary Hydron of Indiana, contested the will.

The Fruit-Growers' Convention.

SAN DIEGO, April 18th.—The visiting fruit-growers in session at National City spent yesterday in visiting the country contiguous to San Diego. Over 500 were carried sixty miles to the choicest valleys in the county and the famous Sweetwater dam. To-night the session was well attended. John Wheeler, of the Viticultural Commission, explained the new disease to vines, which had made its appearance in San Gabriel and other places. Other papers on deciduous fruits and nuts and on the drying and canning of fruits were read. The session closes to-morrow.

M. Mosso, of Turin, having carried tou a series of experiments with the blood of eels, finds that it possesses marked poisonous properties. Half a cubic centimeter of the serum injected beneath the skin of a dog weighing thirty-five pounds, killed it in four minutes. At this rate, an eel weighing five pounds would contain enough poison to despatch ten men. The blood of animals poisoned by eel's blood cannot be made to coagulate, just as after the bite of serpents. Fortunately the blood is inert when introduced via the stomach, and it loses its toxic properties when heated.—The Medical Press.

WM. ROBERTS, M. D., Physician to the Manchester, Eng., Infirmary and Lunatic Hospital, Professor of Medicine in Owen's College, says: "The attention of the patient is awakened some months, or it may be years, after advanced kidney disease exists." If you think it unwise to take further chances use Warner's Safe Cure before the malady becomes any further advanced.

EUROPEAN MATTERS.

BISMARCK TRYING TO SQUARE HIMSELF IN SAMOA.

An Effort on Foot to Reimburse the Explorer Stanley—The Prosecution of Boulanger.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

POOR BISMARCK.

He Blames it all to Consul Knapp—Jimmy, Put Up Your Gun.

BERLIN, April 18th.—The Samoan White Book has just been issued, obviously in view of the approach of the Samoan Conference. In a dispatch to Herr Stubel, the new German Consul at Samoa, dated April 16th, Prince Bismarck censures Consul Knapp's conduct throughout the troubles in Samoa. He dwells upon the deplorable fact that with an inadequate force, and without authority of urgency, or likelihood of success, Consul Knapp took measures on December 17th which resulted in the death of a large number of persons, an undesirable change in the position of the planters, besides jeopardizing peace with America, while quiet would have preserved a tolerable state of affairs, and the sanction of the other treaty powers would not have been lacking. He says Consul Knapp's demand for control of the foreign relations of Samoa was of no force, and compelled him (Bismarck) to notify Great Britain and America of its withdrawal. The Chancellor concludes by declaring that Germany has nothing to do with the internal affairs of Samoa; that her mission is restricted to protecting Germans and enabling them to develop their commercial interests. Prince Bismarck has issued an order in which he defines the responsibility of Commanders of warships with respect to the requests of Consuls abroad.

The Chancellor directs the Commanders to examine for themselves the legal and political grounds for such request, unless the Consul produces special authority from the German Foreign Office. As a reason for his action, Prince Bismarck refers to the recent events in Samoa, where, he says, an unauthorized request resulted in great loss of life and injury to German interests, and danger was incurred of Germany becoming embroiled with a friendly nation, with no conclusive reasons existing for an intervention of an armed force.

PROSECUTING BOULANGER.

The Senate Proceedings will be Conducted in Secret.

PARIS, April 18th.—The committee appointed to conduct the prosecution of General Boulanger has decided unanimously that all the proceedings of the Senate as a Court shall be secret, and that nothing shall be imparted to the press. It is generally thought that this is establishing a dangerous precedent.

The Boulangists, while denying that the General made any compromising remarks on the eve of the election of M. Carnot, as is charged by the Government, retort that M. Ferry, at the same moment, was sitting in a conference of political friends, and said that he was prepared to go to any length to secure the Presidency. He only wanted the assistance of an intelligent soldier, indicating General Galliet, to whom he promised the War portfolio on his asserting that the whole army would be with him in the event of an emeute.

An Author and Publisher Fined.

PARIS, April 18th.—The Radical declares that General Saussier has presented to the Senate committee a list of officers willing to follow Boulanger, compiled by an officer who has since been punished.

Numa Gildy, author of "Mes Dossiers," has been sentenced to six months' imprisonment, and Savine, the publisher of the book, to three months' imprisonment and 3,000 francs fine, and 8,000 francs damages, for libeling ex-Minister Raynal.

The Services of Stanley.

LONDON, April 18th.—The Telegraph yesterday prints in a prominent position a letter proposing that some national recognition shall be made of Stanley's services upon his return from his expedition in search of Emin Bey.

Moderate Weather.

LONDON, April 18th.—Incoming steamers report having experienced moderate weather and having hailed other steamers almost daily, none of which, however, mentioned the Danmark.

Hungry in Hungary.

LONDON, April 18th.—A famine is raging at Bicaza, Waag and Bistritz, in Hungary, and hundreds of persons are starving and dying.

Ordered to Settle.

PARIS, April 18th.—The Civil Tribunal has ordered the liquidator of the Panama canal to compensate the discharged employes.

The English Turf.

LONDON, April 18th.—The great Welcome Handicap, at Cradon to-day, was won by Colonel Dansey's four-year-old Queen Ann.

SPRING IS THE TIME

To Cure Agonizing, Humiliating, Itching, Burning, Scaly and Pimply Humors of the Skin, Scalp and Blood.

Psoriasis 8 years. Head, arms and breast a solid scab. Back covered with sores. Best doctors and medicines fail. Cured by Cuticura Remedies at a cost of $3 75.

I have used the CUTICURA REMEDIES with the best results. I used two bottles of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, three boxes of CUTICURA, and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, and am cured of a terrible skin and scalp disease known as psoriasis. I had it for eight years. It would get better and worse at times. Sometimes my head would be a solid scab, and was at the time I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My arms were covered with scabs from my elbows to shoulders, my breast was almost one solid scab, and my back covered with sores, varying in size from a penny to a dollar. I had doctored with all the best doctors with no relief, and used many different medicines without effect. My case was hereditary, and I began to think incurable, but it began to heal from the first application of CUTICURA. ARCHER RUSSELL, Deshler, Ohio.

I am thankful to say that I have used the CUTICURA REMEDIES for about eight months with great success, and consider myself entirely cured of salt rheum, from which I have suffered for six years. I tried a number of medicines and two of the best doctors in the country, but found nothing that would effect a cure until I used your CUTICURA REMEDIES.
MRS. A. McCLAFLIN, Morette, Mo.

I have been troubled with a skin and scalp disease for seventeen years. My head at times was one running sore, and my body was covered with them as large as a half dollar. I tried a great many remedies without effect until I used the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and am thankful to state that after two months of their use I am entirely cured. I feel it my duty to you and the public to state the above case.
L. R. McDOWELL, Jamesburg, N. J.

Bad Sore Leg. Skin entirely gone. Flesh a mass of disease. Leg diminished one third in size. Condition hopeless. Cured by the Cuticura Remedies.

For three years I was almost crippled with an awful sore leg from my knee down to my ankle; the skin was entirely gone, and the flesh was one mass of disease. Some physicians pronounced it incurable. It had diminished about one-third the size of the other, and I was in a hopeless condition. After trying all kinds of remedies and spending hundreds of dollars, from which I got no relief whatever, I was persuaded to try your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and the result was as follows: After three days I noticed a decided change for the better, and at the end of two months I was completely cured. My flesh was purified, and the bone (which had been exposed for over a year) got sound. The flesh began to grow, and to-day, and for nearly two years past, my leg is as well as ever it was, sound in every respect, and not a sign of the disease to be seen.
S. G. AHERN, Dubois, Dodge county, Ga.

It gives me great pleasure to inform you that your CUTICURA REMEDIES have made a great change in my child. I gave them a fair trial. I used about four bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and three boxes CUTICURA, and four cakes CUTICURA SOAP, and she is now cured of the disease. Nobody would take her to be the same child.
JAMES BRISCOE, 404 E. 72d st., New York.

Your CUTICURA REMEDIES have done great things for me. They cured a skin disease of many years standing. Have tried many other remedies, but nothing did me any good until I commenced using your CUTICURA REMEDIES. I can recommend them to all.
MRS. C. W. BROWN,
Sturtevant Building, Jamaica Plains, Mass.

BOULANGER.

The question of the true aims and position of General Boulanger will continue to interest the public until the drama in which he is so conspicuous an actor is played out. For ten days past he has been posing as an exile and in the meantime, we are told, his "popularity" in France is augmenting. But in fact there have been no new developments of the scheme by which he expects to reach the seat of authority where he hopes to be able—if he is to be credited with sincerity in his declaration—to maintain the Republic without "parliamentism," whatever that may mean. That he has a very large following is not to be denied, and that it is augmenting in force is asserted. But we cannot divest ourselves of the belief that it all represents enmity to a constitutional form of government. For it is not a following that is a unit. It is made up of motley elements that by no sort of political alchemy can be resolved into a harmonious mass. The General is a figure around which they can agree to meet without flying at one another's throats. Beyond that we do not believe they can unite upon any proposition. Boulanger is himself aware of this, and hence his secret scheme is to make himself Dictator and hold the antagonistic elements of his following at arm's length in fear of each other. And such an outcome is not without the possibilities, but it cannot be permanent, and if it is attained it will be red with the blood of Frenchmen.

THE Butler, Pa., woman who on Wednesday coolly shot her husband, after warning him of her intention to do so if he attempted to again beat her, which he proceeded to do, may be none the less guilty of a bad example, since the killing was the result of her refusal to retire at midnight and cease reading. Thus, it would throw light upon the question of her justification if it could be known what she was reading. If the book was from the pen of Amelia Rives, or of Mrs. Atherton, or any of that class, over which she was burning the midnight oil, it is by no means certain that the advice of the dying husband was sound, when, as he weltered in his gore, she asked him if she should not dispatch herself also, and he responded in the negative. It is bad enough, no matter what the literary study, to have a dowdy wife around in the morning as the result of midnight reading, and hence there may have been a deeper meaning than is at first apparent in the husband's deposition which he made, that he was to blame—he may have concluded that the man who chooses such a help-meet ought not to murmur when she fills him with cold lead for interfering physically with her small-hour literary recreations. But to be serious, the man who has sworn to cherish "the weaker," and to protect her from harm, who forgets for one moment that the mother of his children cannot receive a blow from him without his manhood being disgraced and his sex being shamed, deserves to be met by the woman with weapons of deadly character when he attempts to exemplify his brutality by beating her. If women cannot have the protection of those who in duty are bound to shield them, we must not be surprised that they now and then do precisely as men would do under similar circumstances. If the Butler man had beaten and bruised, cruelly and maliciously, one of his own sex, who was physically incapable of defending himself with the weapons nature furnishes, and the brutal assailant had again attempted to crush him, the weaker man, fearing great bodily harm, would be justified in resorting, after due warning of his intention, to the use of firearms, and this woman had equal right to such defense. That the assailant was her husband, that he even may have cause for anger in her refusal to comply with a reasonable command, does not affect the question. The wife-beater presumed upon the weakness of his victim, and she resorted to justifiable mans to save herself from great harm, possibly death. The world has come to be very charitable towards women who meet wife-beaters as this one was met, and no jury will be found to bring a woman to conviction for treating these brutes as men would treat them.

IF THE Berlin Commissioners are successful in making Germany recognize Mataafa as the rightful ruler in Samoa, the difficulty will be practically settled. Such recognition will of course mean the return of old King Malietoa, who was so cruelly deported from his native land. It now appears that such recognition will be forced upon Germany; that she will not be able to resist the claims of justice upon which the demand rests. Mr. Brett, of the Auckland Star, and who is now upon this coast, is reported as saying to a San Francisco newspaper:

When Malietoa was deposed there was a very strong feeling against the Germans throughout New Zealand and Australia. This feeling was intensified when the news was received of war having been declared against Mataafa, and all the newspapers, especially the Auckland Star and the Herald, spoke out strongly against the position assumed by the Germans. The attitude taken by America was universally applauded throughout New Zealand and Australia, and no doubt the prompt action in sending down the war ships and the determined stand taken by America was the immediate cause of the change of front on the part of Germany. The feeling in New Zealand and Australia is, however, that England and America should insist on Malietoa being restored to Samoa.

And this is unquestionably the sentiment of the civilized world, and while we may, because of its attitude, be compelled to except the German Government, it is safe to say that were the question submitted to the thinking German people to-day, their sense of justice would lead them to concur in the demand for the restoration of the old King.

FOR the dignified bearing, gentility of expression, and refinement that should characterize a journal that claims to be a "Monarch" among the exponents of public opinion, commend us to the San Francisco Examiner. Its editorial columns are such brilliant examples of thoughtful expression, so address themselves to the good taste of the reading public, and so commend themselves for absence of frivolity, that it is nothing less than wonderful that the people who read do not fall down in adoration before this new divinity in journalism. Lest it may be supposed that we are extravagant in our praise, we cite in support the following witty and profound editorial which yesterday graced and illumined the "leader" column of the Examiner:

The Princess de Sagan, one of the leaders of the haut monde of Paris, has been bitten by a pet monkey which has since died from hydrophobia. Mrs. Langtry should muzzle Freddy Gebhardt.

No one will contend, after reading that effusion, at once so witty, original and brilliant, that our contemporary's claims to leadership are deniable. It is in order for all the press to now fall into line and confess the master hand that this guinea stamp proves to be upon the helm of the Examiner.

GOVERNOR STANFORD, after inspecting the work at the Leland Stanford Jr. University, has expressed the belief that it will be ready for the reception of pupils within two years, possibly within eighteen months. It develops also that the scheme of the University in its economic features is to be much broader than the general public has understood the original intention to be. For pupils are to be so accomodated that they can avail of the benefits of the University for about the bare cost of food and raiment—an outlay so small that it opens the doors of the institution to the poorest, and thus affords to the deserving youth of the age, opportunities for education that cannot be paralleled by any scheme as yet known to the educational world. The full flower of this great beneficence by Governor Stanford and wife will more excite the wonder and admiration of the people than the most vivid fancy can now suggest.

THE crop reports the RECORD-UNION has published this week are calculated to make the hearts of Californians very glad and very thankful. Nothing short of sudden disaster or reversal of present conditions can now deprive the people of the State of an abundant harvest. All the conditions are of the best, and nature holds out to us a promise that is full to the brim with good. Of course the next twenty days involve the fate of the grain crops; but so far as the present is concerned, the situation could not well promise better. The uniform feeling of satisfaction, the congratulations with which men greet each other, the universal feeling of content, all testify to the confession that the agriculture of the country is substructural to all other prosperity.

THE agitation in New York about underground telegraph and telephone wires is unreasonable. The city of Chicago has demonstrated that the underground laying of these wires is feasible, and that the opposition to the regulation requiring such disposition of them is foolish. Chicago has more miles of underground wire than any other city, and more than the whole of Europe.

AUBURN AND VICINITY.

The Young Foothill City is Rapidly Improving.

EDS. RECORD-UNION: I have thought that a few lines relating to Auburn and surroundings might be interesting to some of your readers. If space can be spared in the columns of your paper, please publish the following:

Since the good old town of Auburn has been christened a city a desire to improve and beautify has been made manifest. Many very necessary improvements have already been made, and are to be continued as fast as the acquirement of means will allow. The principal street from west Auburn to the station having become a great business thoroughfare for both vehicles and pedestrians, is being finely graded, and eventually will be shaded the entire length of the street. Stone crossings have been laid, hydrants conveniently placed about the city for protection against fire, and for all other purposes. Many fine residences have been erected during the past year, and more are in demand. For the better accommodation of fruit-growers and for the shipping of their products, sufficient money has been subscribed to build a fruit depot at the crossing south of the city, and steps have been taken to induce the railroad company to lay a side track for that purpose. The city and county are fast increasing in population and wealth. We have no drones here, but a class of energetic, enterprising settlers, determined to succeed.

Hitherto, while Auburn could truly boast of a lovely locality, splendid scenery, and health-giving climate, she had been in a measure unfortunately destitute of "fine drives," promenades, and pleasurable places of resort. But as the city has grown in size and increased in population, this deficiency has been supplied. Our streets and county r ads have been (compared with former years) very much improved. The "rough has been made smooth," so that a drive about town or into the country, so finely cultivated, and "fair to look upon," is not only inviting but very enjoyable.

But the chief, and by far the most attractive of our city resorts is Æoli, situated a little way east of the depot. The altitude of this charming place commands a magnificent view of Auburn and surroundings, the majestic Sierras, Sacramento valley, and also affords a distinct view of four other counties. Æoli embraces about one hundred acres already highly cultivated, and although private property, it is generously thrown open to the public, and has now become the favorite place of resort. Two elegant residences, an observatory and fountain adorn this lovely retreat. Fine graded avenues for carriages, beautiful walks for pedestrians, winding around in almost every direction amid ornamental trees, vines and flowers. On or adjoining these grounds are splendid sites for the erection of a first-class hotel, suitable for tourists, invalids and visitors. The local patronage and daily increasing numbers visiting Auburn, would insure a safe and profitable investment to any experienced and competent landlord. N. S. T.

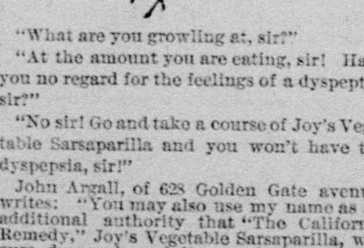
CAUSE OF THE GROWL.



"What are you growling at, sir?"

"At the amount you are eating, sir! Have you no regard for the feelings of a dyspeptic, sir?"

"No sir! Go and take a course of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla and you won't have the dyspepsia, sir!"

John Argall, of 628 Golden Gate avenue, writes: "You may also use my name as an additional authority that 'The California Remedy,' Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, will cure dyspepsia and liver and kidney complaint. It has done it for me."

James Wells, Oakdale, Cal., writes: "I suffered acutely from dyspepsia for years, scarcely taking a meal without the distressing pains of indigestion. Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla relieved me of it entirely."

A youth who went into a Buffalo store and asked for socks, not knowing the proper size, was told to hold out his hand. The customer held out his hand and doubled up his fist as directed. The clerk took a sock from a box, wrapped the foot around the fist and guaranteed a perfect fit. "I am just as sure it will fit you as though I had measured your foot," said he, "as the distance around the fist is always the length of the foot."

COUGHS.—Brown's bronchial troches are a sure remedy for coughs and sore throat. 25 cents a box.

OKLAHOMA.

JUST ON THE EDGE OF THE PROMISED LAND.

Soldiers and Boomers Marching Side by Side—Swollen Streams and Muddy Roads.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

WASHINGTON, April 18th.—It is very apparent here that the officers of the army are filled with the liveliest apprehension regarding the opening of Oklahoma. The Secretary of War has authorized the statement that the Government is fully aware of the situation, and has arranged to take all proper steps to prevent trouble. It is known that the subject has formed the main topic of discussion at recent Cabinet meetings, and that the Attorney-General has been called upon to decide the question as to the authority of the War Department to act in the case of strife or bloodshed or violence in the newly opened country.

Instructions were sent to the commandant of the troops in Oklahoma, as the result of the opinion by the Attorney-General, but were extremely guarded. They are understood to direct the army officers to assist in the maintenance of the law, but to carefully observed the regulations defining their authority, and leave the arrests for violations of the law to the Marshals.

The President might, in case of a serious disturbance, declare martial law over the territory, but this could not be done in advance of a breach of the peace, and the machinery of the Government would, it is feared, be too slow-moving to meet the great emergency which may arise. The only army regulation on the subject provides for the interference by troops in an emergency only in the case of the interruption to the carriage of mail, or assaults upon United States property, but under a somewhat strained construction it may form a reason, assigned for use of troops, to prevent or restrain rioting or bloodshed in a Territory.

INTERNAL REVENUE IN OKLAHOMA.

WASHINGTON, April 18th.—Commodore Mason of the Internal Revenue, has decided under the recent action of Congress and the proclamation of the President in relation to Oklahoma, it ceases to be "Indian Territory," and that special tax stamps may be sold to wholsale and retail liquor dealers, to engage in the business there under the same terms and regulations as in other States and Territories of the United States. The effect of this decision will be to allow wholesale and retail liquor dealers to purchase special tax stamps in Oklahoma, under the same terms as in other sections of the country. Arrangements are being make to have a force of Deputy Collectors and revenue agents on hand to see that the laws are enforced, and that the interests of the Government are protected.

A STREAM OF PRAIRIE SCHOONERS.

WELLINGTON (Kan.), April 18th.—The stream of prairie schooners moving southward has not diminished. The streets of the city are filled with boomers, and they continue to pour in from the north, east and west, frequently from six to twelve wagons and teams included in one outfit. Such emigration was never before witnessed in this section.

Old settlers, who are familiar with the Cimarron river, which all settlers entering Oklahoma from the northwest must cross, say the river is very high, and it is as much as a man's life is worth to try to cross it in its swollen condition. Its bed is composed in large part of shifting quicksands, and where a safe crossing can be made to-day, to-morrow, in all probability, the same place would be death to all. Many parties who intended to go from here with teams will go by rail, being fearful of serious accidents in fording this river.

THE PROMISED LAND.

KANSAS CITY, April 18th.—Captain Hays yesterday received instructions from the War Department to permit entries into the strip at 8 o'clock this morning. The South bridge, across the Arkansas river, is the most direct route to the strip, being just three miles from the border. The road is narrow, with a hedge on one side and wire fence on the other. The rain made the mud hub deep. Before dark last night this three miles of road was blocked with wagons, and impassable either way. Many families slept in their wagons, which stood up to the hubs in mud.

A large party from Wellington, Kas., has constructed a pontoon bridge, which is portable, and they will cross the streams on it. This morning fully 400 wagons were along the line and strung all the way to Arkansas City, where were 600 more. There was a hesitancy about the start. Orders were given by Captain Hays to wait till 8 o'clock, when an Orderly would give warning. It lacked a few minutes before 8 when a Kansas City man called out "Why should we wait longer? follow me;" and drove across the line upon the reservation. A tremendous shout went up from the boomers and they went forward and over the line. The shout was taken up all along the line and the entire cavalcade moved forward. Williams from Chataqua county, Kansas, with his wife and five children, were the first settlers to follow the Kansas City men. Soon one thousand white covered wagons were in motion, and from an elevation five solid miles of wagons could be seen, and as the caravan went over the undulating prairie it presented a sight probably never to be seen again.

Perched on the cracker box in the first of ten wagons from Bingman, Kans., Dan Sikes flung an American flag to the breeze. As far as it could be seen, it was hailed with patriotic shouts. For three hours wagons crossed the strip line and moved slowly toward "the promised land." On the outside of almost every wagon were strapped plows, household goods, and farming implements. An extra horse and bunches of cattle followed the wagons, often driven by women and children.

THE FIRST HOUSE.

One farmer had built a house from the bed of his wagon. It was shingled and the stovepipe leading from the modern cook stove made a complete apartment. From the Cherokee strip line to Salt creek fork is four miles. This creek is swollen and crossing it is dangerous business. A temporary bridge has been erected, but it is not safe. It is believed that a majority of the settlers will camp to-night beside this stream.

Captain Hays broke up Camp Price at noon and is following with his cavalry. His orders are to camp to-night at Salt creek fork and then to take his line of march to-morrow for the Oklahoma line. Camp will be struck by the soldiers just across the line. Captain Hays will picket his men along the line as far as they will reach. His picket line will be joined by a line of soldiers from Caldwell and the boomers

WILL BE KEPT AT BAY

Until the hour of noon arrives. Three miles of the road from the Arkansas river, along the Ponca trail, is in a frightful condition, and it was most discouraging for the settlers, but these men are not made of stuff to turn back. Difficulties of all kinds are met and overcome. The most neighborly feeling exists, and each renders the other all the assistance possible.

Captain Hays, who has kept the boomers at bay, says he never saw a more orderly set of men. He fully expected to see an element that would cause trouble. The Indians from the Mission school half a mile from the Ponca trail came in a body to witness the start, and men and women on horseback from Arkansas City galloped along the line of wagons and waved their handkerchiefs to the farmers.

Prospective merchants, town-siters, bankers and speculators, will take the train Monday. The wagons from the north continue to pour in, but in no such numbers as were witnessed in the last three days. Parts of a wagon passed under the temporary bridge over Salt creek fork this morning, and the supposition is that a family of boomers have been lost in the stream. It is reported that two persons were drowned.

ENTERING THE LAND OF THE CHEROKEES.

CALDWELL (Kan.), April 18th.— Ten o'clock this morning a start across the Cherokee strip was made by the boomers encamped here. The intention had been to start to-morrow morning, but owing to the condition of the trail, because of the heavy rains during the last few days, Captain Woodson, commanding the company stationed here to repel the invaders, determined to give the colonists another day to cross the strip.

By 10 o'clock, fifty wagons were drawn up on either side of the little bridge where the old Reno trail crosses the line, and at just 10 o'clock, they were permitted to start. The troops rode slowly in the front, the wagons stringing out in single file, making the start of a long procession, that will continue to pour over the little bridge into the land of the Cherokees all day long. About 700 wagons left to-day.

GETTING READY FOR STAGE LINES.

TOPEKA (Kan.), April 18th.—Eight carloads of mules passed through to-night to be used on the Rock Island stage route in Oklahoma. General Manager Sebastian, of the Rock Island Railroad, left for Caldwell to-night, and will have the ferries constructed over Cimarron river. The large exodus from this city and advices from the east and south, indicate the boomers are coming in great numbers.

LED BY THE TROOPS.

CALDWELL (Kas.), April 18th.—Over 700 wagons crossed the line to-day, beginning at 10 o'clock, with troops in the lead.

THEIR CAMP FIRES ON THE BORDER.

PURCELL (I. T.), April 17th.—Hundreds of boomers broke camp yesterday afternoon, and to-night their camp fires are burning thirty-five miles inside the northern border of the Cherokee strip.

CAPTAIN JOHN MULLAN.

The Northern Pacific Path-Finder in Tacoma.

The Tacoma Daily Ledger of the 15th inst. contained the following interesting sketch of Captain John Mullan, who was in Sacramento during the last session of the Legislature:

There was written on the register of The Tacoma on Friday evening last, in chirography as bold and rugged as the life-work of the man has been who penned it—a man whose name is inseparably linked with the history of the Northwest, when Washington was yet a part of Oregon, and the Territories of Dakota and Idaho yet within the lines of Nebraska. The man who wrote the name was John Mullan, practically the first engineer of the Northern Pacific Railroad, one of its incorporators, the man who built the famous Mullan road, after whom it was named, as is the Mullan pass and Mullan tunnel, now the special agent in Washington of California, Oregon, Nevada and our own Territory.

At an age when a majority of young men are yet properly the objects of parental care and nurture, he, a talented graduate of West Point, of the same class with Sheridan, Crook and others whose names go to make up history, assumed duties with a rare fidelity and an extraordinary capacity for endurance that has made his name honored and beloved in the veriest hovel of the most remote frontiersman.

In a long interview yesterday afternoon with a representative of the Ledger, Major Mullan spoke entertainingly of his explorations that began in 1852, and ended only with the outbreaking of the rebellion. "Night after night," said he, "I have laid out in unbeaten forests or on pathless prairies, with no bed but a few pine leaves, with no pillow but my saddle, and in my imagination heard the whistle of the engine, the whirr of the machinery, the paddle of the steamboat wheels as they plowed the waters of the Sound, and in my enthusiasm saw the country thickly populated and thousands still coming, still pouring over the borders to make homes in this far-off western land. The Northern Pacific Railroad practically follows the road I planned and built with so much toil and so many hardships more than thirty years ago.

"I always contended that the Cœur d'Alene pass was the proper one to follow, and when the road is straightened from Spokane to Missoula, as I infer it will soon be, it will actually shorten the distance between St. Paul and Tacoma fully 100 miles, making it the shortest transcontinental route. Congress first appropriated, in 1857, $30,000 with which to commence the road which bears my name, $100,000 in 1858, and another $100,000 in 1859. I organized, combined and worked out the situation like the several elements in a mathematical problem. I endured hardships of which no tongue can speak, yet at all times harnessing the energy of a blacksmith to the acuteness and insight of a tactician successfully supposed to be acquired at West Point, I always had faith in my work, the successful outcome of my achievements. I always disregarded what was impractical, what was spectacular, and faced treachery from those who should have assisted me, and submitted to its consequences, making no sign.

"I consider next to the building of the Mullan road the opening up of the waters of the upper Missouri the most successful of my achievements. It was first attempted by one of my staff, a young officer named Grover, a brother of Oregon's Senator. Prior to this the United States had been rendezvousing their soldiers at New York, sending them to San Francisco via the Isthmus, and from California distributing throughout the Northwest. It was at my suggestion that this route was changed, and when the men came directly to the Northwest, instead of massing in New York to be forwarded by the first-named route, I was assured my work had not been in vain. Two of my stanchest friends during my explorations were Isaac T. Stevens, the first Governor of Washington, since dead, and Senator Henry A. Rice of Minnesota, still living. To both of these statesmen Washington owes more than it can ever repay."

Major Mullan intends leaving for Olympia to-morrow to be the guest of Governor Moore. He is a man perhaps 65 years of age, of restless energy, so characteristic of an American, and was appointed to West Point from Maryland, in which State he was born. Both his hair and whiskers are snow white, and he looks when his head is uncovered not unlike the late John B. Gough. He is a man who would be picked out anywhere in a crowd as being one above the ordinary run of man.

Captain Mullan, of the Nipsic, which was lost at Samoa, is a brother of Captain John Mullan, who is now at The Tacoma. He was ordered from Callao with his vessel last November.

ORIGIN OF "UNCLE SAM."

Speculation has recently arisen regarding the origin of the term "Uncle Sam," as applied to the United States Government.

In the war of 1812, between this country and Great Britain, Elbert Anderson, of New York, purchased in Troy, N. Y., a large amount of pork for the American army.

It was inspected by Samuel Wilson, who was popularly known as "Uncle Sam." The barrels of pork were marked "E. A., U. S.," the lettering being down by a facetious employe of Mr. Wilson.

When asked by fellow-workmen the meaning of the mark (for the letters U. S., for United States, were then almost entirely new to them), said "he did not know, unless it meant Elbert Anderson and Uncle Sam," alluding to Uncle Sam Wilson.

The joke took among the workmen, and passed currently, and "Uncle Sam" himself being present, was occasionally rallied on the increasing extent of his possessions. Soon the incident appeared in print, and the joke gained favor rapidly, till it penetrated and was recognized in every part of the country, and, says John Frost, the Boston historian, will no doubt continue so while the United States remains a nation.

It is now firmly imbedded in the Mosaic of our language, like "Tippecanoe," "Log Cabin," and other short but expressive phrases, which refer to important events in the history of the Republic. Both "Tippecanoe" and "Log Cabin" have taken on renewed force and vitality since their adoption by Hon. H. H. Warner, of Safe Cure fame, in the naming of two of his great standard remedies, the principal one known as Warner's Log Cabin Sarsaparilla. They are based upon formulæ so successfully used by our ancestors in the cure of the common ailments to which their arduous labors rendered them liable in the good old log cabin days.

The name of Warner's Safe Cure, likewise, will be held in high esteem, as familiar as a household word, while it continues to cure the worst forms of Kidney Disease, which the medical profession confesses itself unable to do.

Chautauqua Summer Assembly.

The Chautauquans are to have at Pacific Grove this summer their renowned founder and Chancellor, Bishop J. H. Vincent, and also Bishop Warren, who is another star of the first magnitude. Colonel George W. Bain, of Kentucky, Colonel L. F. Copeland and Professor A. J. Marks, of Chicago, all have promised attendance, and two or more lectures, which make a programme of rare attractions; but the best of California literary and scientific ability is also being pressed into service. Last, but not least, a musical troupe of colored singers called "The Jubilee Jinglers," are to furnish original and delightful entertainment. These "Jinglers" are four gentlemen and two ladies who have all been connected with the famous "Hampton Band," or "Nashville Students," and are first-class jubilee singers. Pacific Grove should hardly be able to hold the crowd these attractions will draw.

A Letter from Dr. Hans Von Bulow.

The Knabe Pianos, which I did not know before, have been chosen for my present Concert tour in the United States by my Impressario, and accepted by me on the recommendation of my friend, Bechstein, acquainted with their merits. Had I known these pianos as now I do, I would have chosen them by myself, as their sound and touch are more sympathetic to my ears and hands than all others of the country.

CONSIDERATION OF AN IMPORTANT PROJECT.

Report of the Board of Trade Committee on the Proposed Railroad to Amador.

The Executive Committee of the City Board of Trade, consisting of Messrs. Joseph Steffens (President), L. L. Lewis, D. Lubin, William Ingram, D. A. Lindley, A. S. Hopkins and Herman Fisher, met at the rooms of the Board yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The President of the Board stated that the object of the meeting was to receive the report of a sub-committee recently appointed to examine into the resources of the country and the possibilities of building a railroad between Sacramento and Jackson, Amador county, and also to receive a report from Jackson Dennis and Dr. J. L. Mayon, representing the people of Amador county in the proposed branch road.

David Lubin submitted the following communication, which was read:

SUTTER CREEK, Amador Co., April 14, 1889.
David Lubin and Others of the Committee Appointed by the Sacramento Board of Trade—DEAR SIRS: Noticing through the press that your Board of Trade is taking some action relative to a railroad connecting this section with Sacramento city, we would respectfully inform your committee that some time ago meetings were held throughout this county for the same purpose, and committees were appointed to secure data, and, if your committee wish, would be glad to meet with your committee and compare notes. A part of our committee at least can meet with yours almost any time it may suit you. Probably a trip over the proposed route would be advisable to gain information. We should be glad to hear from you on the subject. Respectfully yours, R. Webb, Jackson; J. Dennis, E. C. Voorhies, Sutter Creek; J. R. Tregloan, Amador City; A. B. Summers, Plymouth—Committee.

JACKSON DENNIS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE.

G. W. Hancock, of the sub-committee, then submitted a verbal report. Mr. Hancock said that the proposed route would open up a rich and extensive section of country which had heretofore remained in a measure undeveloped for the want of better means of communication. He said that in the vicinity of Howell's Station, near the Cosumnes river, there were over 20,000 acres of first and second grade bottom lands, some 12,000 of which could not be equaled in this county for fruit-growing purposes. He claimed that it was better adapted for that purpose than any lands on the American or Sacramento rivers. Mr. Hancock referred to a map to show that the route of the proposed line would be along or parallel to the Jackson road as far as Howell's and it would then run in a southwesterly direction, crossing the Cosumnes river and extending on to Plymouth, Sutter Creek and Jackson, the proposed terminus.

Jackson Dennis, Secretary of the Amador County Committee, said that the intended line of road would be of incalculable value to the citizens of his county. In his opinion it would become a paying feeder from the start. Referring to the population who would be benefited by the building of this road, he said that it would open up a territory occupied by some ten or twelve thousand people; that every day upwards of twenty carloads of merchandise was hauled into that section by wagon. "But this is not all," said Mr. Dennis. "Our resources are about inexhaustible. In addition to farm and orchard products we have large forests, which will supply millions of feet of lumber, which cannot be put on the market until a road is built." He said that a committee had called on General Manager Towne and Colonel Fred. Crocker, of the Southern Pacific, and had discussed the matter very thoroughly. The railroad people seemed very much pleased with their report.

Mr. Dennis said that his people would like very much to act with Sacramento in securing the building of this road, and would lend all the assistance within their power. Sacramento would be the place most benefited, for it made her the supply depot for a large and growing section.

Mr. Steffens remarked that the two committees had better prepare their report at once. He added that Mr. Huntington would be in Sacramento within a few days, and then the whole matter could be laid before him. The road would be about fifty miles long. A great many people along the contemplated route are ready to assist the builders financially.

The committee then adjourned.

RESOURCES OF THAT SECTION.

J. A. Scott, a gentleman who has evinced much interest in the proposed railroad, is in the city. He says the property owners along the route of the proposed road are becoming quite enthusiastic about it, and will give a subsidy of $5 per acre on farms of from 3,000 to 4,000 acres.

In an interview with a RECORD-UNION reporter Mr. Scott stated that there is adjacent to the proposed line—commencing at a point about forty-five miles from Sacramento—a stretch of timber country forty miles in length by an average of sixteen in width, an area embracing 640 sections. Each of these sections will produce ten trees to the acre, and each tree will yield 2,000 feet of lumber. This would give in round numbers about 819,000 carloads of sawed lumber to be moved to market, beside an equal quantity of stove-wood. At an average cost of $10 per car he estimates that a railroad running through that section would receive $8,190,000 from freight of that character alone, to say nothing of other classes of freight and the passenger traffic.

Indian Diggings, El Dorado county, through which locality the proposed road would likely run, has extensive quarries of marble and sandstone. A specimen of the former is shown in the shape of a mantelshelf, made from a slab that had lain exposed to the elements for upward of twenty years, and it compares favorably with the marble in general use. A block of the sandstone recently sawed from the quarry shows that it can be readily sawed into any desired shape or design, but the longer exposed to the air the harder it becomes. It should be very valuable for building and ornamental purposes. It is of a creamy color, with blotches and streaks of red, and would make very attractive-looking buildings. Both the marble and sandstone quarries, he says, are practically inexhaustible. It would seem as if this matter were worthy of the consideration of the capitalists and business men of this city.

THE RAILROAD CENTER.

Sacramento the Distributing Center for the Great Interior.

The Placerville Observer makes the following complimentary and truthful allusion to the Capital City as the railroad center of the Pacific coast system:

"Sacramento is our next-door neighbor, and the most important railroad center of the Pacific coast. The early home of the greatest railroad builders of the age is now the favored focus of their magnificent overland system and local lines, and the conspicuous point of arrival and departure of more than sixty trains per day. Its well merited fortunes are thus forever identified with theirs. Its relation to the entire railroad system of the continent are analogous to those of Chicago, Kansas City and other great railroad centers of the East, with which its train dispatchers are in momentary communication. To be distant but fifty miles by rail from such a terminal of continental travel is glory enough for Placerville, and it tells the whole story of her future destiny."

THEY WERE SCOTCHMEN A'.

An Evening of Song and Merriment Among the Caledonians.

A few evenings since, after the regular meeting of the Caledonian Association, the members were led to the banquet hall by R. A. Renwick, where the awe-inspiring "Goudie" stood serenely in the center of a well-laid spread and made these native sons of the heather almost leap with joy at the prospects of a feast of their old favorite. The genial Chief, A. M. McCollum, presided. After justice had been done to all the good things, the evening was spent in singing and Scotch dancing. An old original Scotch song, sung by Tom Scott and J. M. Morrison, brought great applause, and the duet by A. Logan and R. B. Robertson caused much amusement, and it was some time before the voice of the Chief could be heard above the din. Other songs were sung by J. T. Terrace and T. McKinley. The Scotch airs by J. Morrison were highly appreciated. Piper Renwick started his pipes to the tune of the "Highland Fling," which brought to the floor J. D. Warrack and McRae Vert, and these gentlemen convinced their clansmen that the first and second prizes for that dance were going to be carried off by them at the annual gathering on the 1st of June. At an early hour they dispersed, after having spent an enjoyable evening.

A WILD RUN.

Exciting Runaway of a Street-Car's Equine Propeller.

After dark last evening the horse attached to one of the street-cars managed to get away from the driver at the railroad depot and dashed down Second street at a lively run. The car flew the track several times, but as often found the rails again.

During the run the lamps were jostled from their places or broken, and the burning oil at one time threatened to add to the thrilling character of the car's wild flight. Just before reaching Third street, however, a man leaped into the car through the rear door, and putting on the brake, brought the runaway horse to a standstill.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Grismer-Davies Company concluded its very successful engagement at the Metropolitan last night, playing "The World Against Her." To-night the company appear at Marysville.

At the Clunie Opera House this evening the Nelsons' "World Combination." It is, according to all reports and the testimony of those who saw it in San Francisco, the strongest athletic and variety company that has ever come to the Coast. The Nelsons are seven in number, and they are athletes of wonderful skill, strength, and daring. In addition, there are the Wems brothers and Coyne sisters in comedy; Coleman, character dancer; Neimann, ventriloquist; Obeines brothers, French musical grotesques; Nelly Franklyn, balladist; Griffin and Langan, dancers; M'lle Forgordas, bird trainer; Littlefield, whistler; the Campbells, character actors; Pitrot in facial changes and Mdlle. Ancion, the trapeziest.

Great Land Sale Near Winters.

McAfee & Baldwin, real estate agents and auctioneers, of San Francisco, announce a great auction sale of choice fruit lands in the Winters' early fruit belt of Yolo county, to-morrow, the 20th inst. The property is divided into 57 fruit farms of 20 acres each, and is situated at the base of the Coast Range foothills, about four and a half miles from the town of Winters. This section is noted for its fine and early fruits.

The land to be sold has heretofore been devoted to a range for stock, and will, it is expected, sell at a low figure, although of the same quality as land in that locality that readily brings $100 per acre. The rainfall is from 24 to 27 inches, and irrigation is not required. An excursion train will be run on the day of the sale at low rates, and a free collation served to all that attend the sale.

Elegant Household Furniture.

Owing to his absence to-morrow Bell, the auctioneer, will hold his semi-weekly sale to-day at 10 A. M., at 927 K street. The spacious salesroom looks like an immense parlor in some great mansion, or a choice nook in an extensive furniture warehouse, with its varied assortment of new and elegant articles to be sold to-day. These include a large consignment of rich goods received from San Francisco yesterday. There are sixteen Japanese folding panel-screens, beautifully decorated, 5½ feet high by 8 in length, a number of ornamental fire-place screens, cherry and oak antique chairs, several elegant parlor sets, bed-lounges, patent kitchen tables, etc., and everything new. There will also be sold two luxurious and costly Turkish easy-chairs.

To Enlarge the State Printing Office.

The last Legislature made an appropriation of $11,000 with which to build an addition to and otherwise improve the State Printing Office. The plans and specifications have been completed by N. D. Goodell, and after the Governor's return the contract for the work will be let. Mr. Goodell says the main improvement will be a two-story addition to the west side of the building, 40x64 feet in size, which will cost perhaps from $7,000 to $8,000.

The great increase in the work of the State Printing Office, consequent upon the publication of the school-books, has caused the present building to be greatly overcrowded, and the proposed improvement will greatly facilitate work.

The Santa Margarita Sale.

Briggs, Fergusson & Co., real estate auctioneers, will hold a great sale of real estate to-morrow at Santa Margarita, the terminus of the Southern Pacific Railroad in San Luis Obispo county, by order of the Pacific Improvement Company. An excursion train will leave San Francisco at 10:20 A. M. today, on which the round-trip fare will be $7. Santa Margarita is the heart of the beautiful Santa Margarita valley in San Luis Obispo county, and is the center of an immense productive region, noted throughout the State for the richness of its soil and the excellence of its products.

W. H. Govan's Injuries.

While there have been no developments as yet of an alarming character in the condition of William H. Govan, who was so severely injured last week by a fall from a vehicle, still he is undoubtedly a very sick man, and is suffering greatly from his injuries. His family and the attending physician have every hope of his speedy recovery.

SACRAMENTO OBJECTS TO CARRYING THE TARGET,

And Proceeds to Play Very Good Ball—The League Leaders Put Down Yesterday.

The game at San Francisco yesterday between the club of that city and the Sacramentos was close and exciting, especially in the last two innings. When the visitors had the bases full in the last inning, with the score five to four in favor of the San Franciscos, Burke and Goodenough each made a single. Krehmeyer got a base on balls, McSorley hit to Incell, who threw out Burke at home. Veach next came up and amid cheers drove a single past second, bringing in two runs, winning the game.

Burke pitched a good game, and was well supported by McLaughlin. O'Day carried off the infield honors. Newbert had an off day. The visitors hit Incell hard, and but one man was struck out.

The audience had little applause for the home club, but appeared to be with Sacramento. Sheridan umpired satisfactorily. The features were Veach's batting and Powers' unassisted double play. Following is the score:

Baseball Notes.

Umpire Young did not get in his work yesterday.

All the Sacramento Club wants is a square deal in order to lead the procession.

Burke shows that he possesses solid qualities as a pitcher.

The Sacramento players must have nearly lost their breath yesterday when the audience gave them the cheers usually reserved for their home club.

Oakland and Sacramento are now tied, and to-morrow's game will decide which will fill the rear position.

On Sunday next the Sacramento and San Francisco clubs will come together again at Snowflake Park in this city, when another exciting game may be looked for. The Sacramentos are getting down to their work nobly, and are in a position now to retrieve their lost ground.

Sylvester has succeeded McSorley as Captain of the local club. The latter thinks he can do more good in the field.

The "Youngsters" have organized with the following members: Frankie Rhoades, Myron Nathan, Tony Leonard, Joe Zemansky, John Bowers, Louis Leloy, Theodore Kreuzenberger, Isadore Nathan and Ikey Mooser. They declare their readiness to play all clubs whose members are not over 10 years of age. Challenges can be forwarded to Ikey Mooser, 700 Ninth street.

ANGRY DOCTORS.

A Tilt Between Medicos Before the State Medical Society.

The State Medical Society held a meeting at San Francisco yesterday, at which Dr. O'Brien of Merced read a paper on the San Joaquin valley. During his remarks he said that there was more malaria in the Sacramento valley than in the San Joaquin valley. Dr. Ross of Sacramento repudiated Dr. O'Brien's assertion. He said that if Dr. O'Brien knew more about the Sacramento valley he would never have made such a remark. He knew of a family whom misfortune drove to Fresno from Sacramento. While they lived in Sacramento the family had never been afflicted with malarial fever, but on their arrival in Fresno the entire family was assailed with that horrible disease, which almost proved fatal and compelled their return to Sacramento.

Dr. O'Brien started up to refute these assertions, and the discussion would have proved entertaining over the respective malarial merits of Fresno and Sacramento had not Chairman Simpson declared discussion out of order by saying there was malaria everywhere except in San Francisco.

A project of this character has been talked of for several years, but it begins to look as if there is now a prospect of something of the kind being done.

Inasmuch as some of the parties interested in the outcome of the Smith-Harlow case seem to attach some importance to the matter of the date of the first publication of the facts in the case, an explanation is in order. The reporter for the RECORD-UNION found the document in Justice Devine's Court on Tuesday, the 9th instant, but it seems it was filed into on the preceding evening, consequently a day had intervened before the facts were published. The reporter's understanding of the matter was that the papers had just been filed on the day he first saw them.

Spring Millinery.

We are prepared to take orders for Easter Millinery and deliver in due season. The force of trimmers is large and thoroughly skilled. We have never turned out better work than we are doing at present.

Our stock of materials—shapes, silks, ribbons, flowers, etc.—is very much larger than it would be but for the fact that we have a large out-of-town as well as city trade to provide for. This makes our prices lower and assortment more varied than they would otherwise be.

Dress Ribbons.

This is a season of Ribbons. Never prettier. Never more interesting. Never more art in weave or coloring. There are the "Mary Anderson," "Directoire" and "Majestic" Ribbons. All special 1889 weaves for dress trimmings, besides the rich, rich "Persians," and the whole troop of Moires, Grosgrains and other staple sorts. Qualities the finest. Colorings—all the fancy and staple shades. Prices right. Is it any wonder that ribbon customers are plentiful at our counters?

Two separate and distinct stocks—one in the Fancy Goods Department and one in Millinery.

Ten sorts of Tall Hats, for all sorts of needs. Tall Straw Hats for summer, three colors, $3 50; Tall Cassimere Hats for dress, pearl brown or black, $4; Light Wool Felt Tall Hats, $2; Imported French "Pulloners," light in color and light in weight, $5. Besides the above special Summer Hats, we have the "Broadway" Black Silk at $5, and Dunlap's latest block at $8, than which there is nothing finer anywhere.

We have these hats arranged handy to get at, and it will only be a moment's work to show one or all of them.

COAST NEWS.

CONCLUSION OF THE SESSION OF THE GRAND PARLOR.

The Sky Pilots and Saloon-Keepers in Virginia City Working Hand in Hand.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

NATIVE SONS.

Frank D. Ryan, of Sacramento, Elected Grand President.

SAN RAFAEL, April 18th.—The Grand Parlor convened at 9:30 A. M.

The election of Grand Officers was made a special order for 2 o'clock this afternoon.

A resolution providing that Past Grand Presidents shall have no voice in the election of Grand Officers was lost.

A resolution providing for local celebrations of Admission Day by various parlors was adopted. This is not to be construed as operating against the annual grand celebrations.

Resolutions providing that only Past Presidents shall be eligible to election as delegates were lost.

A resolution providing that no social entertainment of any kind shall be permitted to interfere with the sessions of the Grand Parlor was defeated.

A resolution providing that district departments may not grant dispensations to ballot for and initiate candidates on the same night was defeated.

A resolution providing for the granting of charters for parlors to be organized outside of the State wherever a sufficient number of native Californians may be found was lost.

By a two-thirds vote it was decided that annual meetings of the Grand Parlor shall hereafter convene on the fourth Monday of April, instead of the third, as now.

A proposition to create offices of Grand Second Vice-President and Grand Third Vice-President was lost.

The report of the Committee on Appeals and Grievances was received and acted on.

Resolution that applicants for membership in sub-parlors shall bind themselves not to seek redress in the Civil Courts for any action of the parlor was carried.

A resolution providing that in an election of sub-parlors the roll shall be called was adopted.

It was announced that the train will leave for San Francisco to-night at 2:30 A. M., after the banquet.

A resolution defining the privileges of members holding withdrawal cards prevailed.

At the afternoon session, on motion, the nominating speeches were limited to three minutes, and the seconding of speeches dispensed with.

The thanks of the Grand Parlor were extended to Mt. Tamalpais Parlor and the committees for the generous entertainment of the delegates.

The funeral badge was adopted.

The election of officers was taken up, and Frank D. Ryan, of Sacramento, was elected Grand President, by acclamation. For Grand Vice-President the nominees were R. M. Fitzgerald, of Oakland; L. W. Juilliard, of Santa Rosa; J. Merwyn Donahue, of San Rafael; Jackson Hatch, of Red Bluff; Charles M. Belshaw, of Antioch; John E. McDougall and William H. Miller, of San Francisco. Miller was nominated by John S. Greany, and elected on the second balllot.

Henry Lunstedt, of San Francisco, was unanimously elected Grand Secretary, and Henry S. Martin, of San Francisco, Grand Treasurer. A. L. Bruner, of Sacramento, and J. M. Ahern, of Bakersfield, were the nominees for Grand Lecturer. Bruner was elected on the first ballot.

For Grand Marshal, San Francisco; H. C. Katz, of Los Angeles, and F. P. Tuttle, of Auburn, were the nominees for Grand Orator. Tuttle was elected after a stubborn contest of five ballots. Katz lead in the first four ballots.

Fred Wickersham, of Petaluma, and Conrad Gottwalls were the nominees for Inside Sentinel. Gottwalls was elected.

A resolution sending greeting to the Native Daughters on the success of their organization was adopted, as was also one providing for the election of a Historian by subordinate Parlors.

The Grand President was given ten days to name the standing committees.

The General Winn Monument Committee was discharged, with the thanks of the Grand Parlor.

OLD EL DORADO.

Drager and Olsen Putting in Their Time Making Mats.

PLACERVILLE, April 18th.—The Supreme Court will hear the appeal cases of Drager and Olsen at Sacramento on May 8th. The prisoners have been occupying their time at the county jail for the last month or so in making rope mats, as they find imprisonment lighter on them when they have employment. Both appear to be unusually industrious men.

At a meeting of the Eighth District Agricultural Association, Frank Miller was recommended for appointment by the Governor as Director for four years to succeed J. B. Rice, term expired; J. McF. Pearson was recommended for two years to succeed R. Alderson, Jr., resigned; and R. W. Baum was recommended for one year to succeed E. A. Boles.

The Directors have decided to hold the fair in this district one week previous to the State Fair at Sacramento. They will hold a special meeting next Wednesday, April 24th, to arrange the premium list and transact other business. They hope to offer some special premiums this year that will be a great encouragement to exhibitors. It is very desirable that the premiums shall be announced very early in the season so that competitors may prepare for a good exhibit.

A REST ON SUNDAY.

Sky Pilots and Saloonists Pulling Together in Virginia City.

VIRGINIA CITY (Nev.), April 18th.—Miners are agitating the question of having a holiday on Sunday every week. So far as has been ascertained, they are equally divided on the question, but to get a true sentiment of the majority, the time-keepers at the various mines or lodes will question each miner as he goes on shift whether he is in favor or against the proposition.

Middle-aged miners and those with families who are not church members, are opposed to having a holiday one day in every seven, as it will curtail their pay from $18 to $20 per month. The youthful contingent, however, are unanimously in favor of losing a shift on Sunday. The Superintendents and mining company managements are indifferent as to whether the miners decide for or against losing a shift every week.

If a majority decide in favor of losing a shift on Sundays, it will involve the shutting down of the mines on that day. This will reduce the monthly pay roll about $30,000, and curtail the bullion yield of the lode about $80,000 below the present product.

A strange feature of the movement is, that sky pilots and saloonists are both in favor of the movement, the former being credited with having inaugurated it. If successful, it will be curious to note which of the two secures the most liberal patronage on the weekly holidays.

ROYAL ARCH MASONS.

Proceedings of the Final Day of the Convocation—Officers Appointed.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18th.—Yesterday was the second and last day of the thirty-fifth annual convocation of the Grand Chapter of Royal and Arch Masons of the State of California. Grand High Priest Luther presided. The morning session was occupied with the reports of various committees and the afternoon was devoted to the installation of the officers elected on the preceding day.

William Vanderhurst, Grand High Priest-elect, announced the following appointments for the ensuing year: E. Alfred Thomas Perkins of Alameda, Grand Chaplain; E. Thomas Hubbard Caswell of Nevada, Grand Lecturer; E. William Buckley Davis of Sacramento, Grand Chaplain of the Host; E. Charles Ray Gritman of Napa, Grand Royal Arch Captain; Samuel David Meyer of San Francisco, Grand Organist; James Oglesby of San Francisco, Grand Guard.

Standing committees for the ensuing year were also announced, as follows:

On Correspondence—Thomas H. Caswell, James W. Anderson, Trowbridge H. Ward, Joseph B. Cook, Gilbert P. Ostram.

The business then being completed the Grand Chapter closed in ample form.

San Francisco, April 18th.—The Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of California, has elected the following officers: Carnot Courtland Mason of Chico, Grand Commander; Samuel H. Wagoner of San Jose, Deputy; G. A. Johnson of Santa Rosa, Generibissimo; Jacob H. Neff of Colfax, Grand Captain-General; H. L. Hosmer of San Francisco, Grand Prelate; Williams Vanderhurst of Salinas, Grand Senior Warden; W. F. Sumner of San Francisco, Junior Warden; J. F. Morrill and Thomas H. Caswell were re-elected Treasurer and Recorder.

Another Los Angeles Railroad.

LOS ANGELES, April 18th.—At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to-day the report of the committee on the feasibility of building a railroad through the Sierra Madre mountains, and the reports of the engineers instructed to examine the projected route, were read and adopted, with the recommendation that the Chamber take definite action in the near future.

They proposed to build a road via Arroyo, Seco, Tejunga and Alize canyon to reach the desert near the mouth of Little Rock creek, which will require a tunnel between the two first named points, and possibly one at the divide between the second and third. The estimate of the length of the former is 4,000 feet and of the latter 1,600 feet, the maximum estimates of grade 130 feet to the mile. The route will be the most direct approach to the Northwest via Harper Station on the A. and P. Railway, which is in a straight line from Little Rock creek. It is also expected that the road will connect with another new road there to Milford on the U. C. R. P. The estimated cost of the projected road of ninety-seven miles, with depots, round houses, shops and complete equipment of rolling stock is $3,500,000.

He Apologized His Way Out.

TUCSON (Ariz.), April 18th.—The famous libel suit of Clark Churchill vs. ex-Special Agent Slater, received its quietus in the District Court last evening, S ater having publicly acknowledged the falsity of the charges made and apologized for the wrong done. Mr. Churchill stated to the Court that he was satisfied, and had no desire to press the suit further.

This suit grew out of a letter published in the Courier, charging General Churchill with being connected with the Lane ring, and making other defamatory allusions to him. Mr. Slater was given as the author. He was indicted by the Grand Jury and held to answer in the sum of $4,000. In the meantime, Mr. Slater was suspended from office, and having a family to support brought the intercession of influential friends, with the result as above noted. Beyond a vindidation of his good name, Mr. Churchill had no desire to prosecute, so he accepted Mr. Slater's apology and let him out of a pretty bad box.

Fresno Races.

FRESNO, April 18th.—There was a good attendance at the spring meeting to-day. The first race was running, three-quarters of a mile and repeat, for a purse of $300. The starters were Ora, Whist, Mulky's Tom Daly, Edwin F. McCarty's Tom Daly and Jack Brady. Mulky's Tom Daly won the first and second heats and the race, Ora second. Time, 1:15 and 1:16.

The horse Jack Brady, which was ruled off the track yesterday, was reinstated.

The second race was pacing, for the 2:30 class, for a purse of $300. The starters were Little Dock, T. B., Lela S. and Johnnie Skelton. The first heat was won by Little Dock in 2:25, Lela S. second, T. B. and Skelton distanced. The second heat was won by Little Dock in 2:30, Lela S. distanced.

The match race, running, five-eighths of a mile dash, for a purse of $200, between Butcher Boy and Edwin F., was won by Butcher Boy in 1:04.

Will Not Obey Salomon.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18th.—On the 5th of April Edward S. Salomon, as Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy Republican League, issued an order annulling the charter of Camp No. 1 of that organization. This has called forth a reply from the camp, in which it repudiates the action of the Commander-in-Chief, on the ground that the Executive Council did not issue a charter to Camp No. 1, and, therefore, could not annul or revoke it. The camp is incorporated under the laws of the State of California, and is, therefore, not subject to the arbitrary dictation of General Salomon. It is further claimed that Salomon and his associates were not legally elected.

San Francisco Items.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18th.—Sidney Cohen, a member of the Educational Board of Sydney, is in the city. He is on a voyage around the world to examine the various school systems.

The Supreme Court to-day ordered all the opinions of the Court filed in the Clerk's office of the district to which the cases respectively belong. The time of a petition for releasing is computed from the time the opinion is filed in the local office.

Mayor Pond has been chosen President, and Frank M. Pixley orator of the Inaugural Celebration.

No Date Decided Upon.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18th.—Notwithstanding the fact that all the necessary stores have been placed aboard the cruiser Charleston and a Captain appointed for her trial trip, the date of that long-looked-for event has not yet been determined upon. The cruiser has not yet been fitted with her steel masts, and it is said she will not receive them until she returns from her trip in the Santa Barbara Channel.
